Subject : Re: Family Tree

OH WOW,,,,,,,,,,,,, Hope the reunion was great so sorry, I didn't come I had a blast with my grandson, Why is it when we get older the more busier we are, crap, Was I that dumb when I was young, now I have so much to go and never enough time, I loved the paper U sent me, I sure do wish I had more time, summer is a bad time for us with the yard, garden, and kids, so much has happened since I lost my father, I still run 7 days a week, this had got to slow down soon I sure do hope and pray it does, Aunt Letha is the best one of the girls, I hope U got to yak with her. John I was told You were a BLASTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTT, they sure did love it. Thanks for writing have a great day Mary too, cuz Wanda

where history lives

Kentucky History Center

Journey through time in A Kentucky Journey permanent exhibit, reflecting over 12,000 years of Kentucky history. The Keeneland Changing Exhibits Gallery presents a variety of temporary exhibits that delve into Kentucky's rich and varied past. Trace your family's roots in the Thomas D. Clark Library. Take home something uniquely Kentucky from the 1792 Store.

Old State Capitol

Tour this national historic landmark which introduced Greek Revival architecture to the United States west of the Appalachian mountains. The building served as the capitol of Kentucky from 1830 to 1910 and looks today much as it did in the 1850s.

Kentucky Military History Museum

Explore Kentucky's military heritage by visiting the Old State Arsenal. The museum emphasizes the service of the Kentucky Militia, State Guard, and other volunteer military organizations, from the Revolution through the Gulf War. Displays feature an extraordinary collection of weapons, uniforms, flags, and photographs.

All sites are located in historic downtown Frankfort.

Form No. 2.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, whether happening by negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of this Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance, a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

The company will not be liable for damages in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after sending the message.

THOS. T. ECKERT, General Manager. NORVIN GREEN, President.

Mrs. Josephine Allen

Dear Mrs. Allen,

Due to a lack of time and staff, we cannot undertake extensive research in the field of genealogy. I am enclosing a list of genealogists who may be able to help you.

I have checked the 1790 "census," which was compiled from tax lists, for the names you mention. There were no Stegalls or Herns listed. I found a John Honey in Bourbon county; Garrad Towensend in Fayette; Light Towsen in Fayette; Jabez Towsend in Lincoln. There were Allens in all of the following counties: Mason, Lincoln, Fayette, Mercer, Nelson, Woodford, Bourbon, and also a number of Allins.

I also checked the 1800 "census" for the name of Stegall and found Moses listed in Henderson. I did not check this record for the other names on your list.

We do not have a genealogical file of the Honey family, nor do we have any correspondence in the Stegall file.

I regret that we cannot do further research on this matter for you.

Sincerely,

Librarian

DEAR STAFF,

I AM IN SEARCH OF MY FAMILY IN KENTUCKY. MY CURRENT INFORMATION IS LIMITED AND I HOPE THAT YOUR SOCIETY WILL BE ABLE TO SUPPLY ME WITH THE INFORMATION THAT I AM REQUESTING. THE INFORMATION THAT I AM SEARCHING FOR IS THE FOLLOWING.

BIRTH RECORDS:

GRANDFATHER: ULYSSES GRANT SCARBROUGH OR GRANT SCARBROUGH. BORN ON JANUARY 26, 1880 OR 1881. PLACE IS UNKNOWN TO ME. HIS PARENTS ARE UNKNOWN TO ME. HIS GRANDPARENTS ARE UNKNOWN TO ME. ANY INFORMATION THAT CAN BE SHARED WITH ME WILL BE FULLY APPRECIATED. HE WAS MARRIED TO GERTRUDE HOPE ON JULY 19, 1910, POSSIBLY IN LEWISBURG, KENTUCKY. MY FATHER, AZZRO SCARBROUGH, IS THE SON OF GRANT SCARBROUGH AND GERTRUDE HOPE SCARBROUGH. HE WAS BORN IN LEWISBURG, KENTUCKY, ON DECEMBER 21, 1912.

GRANDMOTHER: GERTRUDE HOPE SCARBROUGH. BORN ON APRIL 1, 1880, IN KENTUCKY, POSSIBLY IN LOGAN OR BUTLER CO. HER FATHER IS JOEL HOPE AND HER MOTHER UNKNOWN BASSETT.

GREAT GRANDFATHER: JOEL HOPE. LIVED MOST OF HIS LIFE IN MORGANTOWN, AT LEAST THAT IS WHAT HAS BEEN TOLD TO ME. I BELIEVE THAT HE MUST HAVE BEEN BORN IN THE 1840'S - 1850'S. ANY INFORMATION ON JOEL HOPE WOULD APPRECIATED. I BELIEVE THAT HIS WIFE, FIRST NAME UNKNOWN WAS A BASSETT. ANY INFORMATION ON HER WOULD BE APPRECIATED.

ANY INFORMATION THAT YOU MAY HAVE CONCERNING THESE PEOPLE AND THEIR FAMILIES WOULD BE DEEPLY APPRECIATED. I AM MORE THAN WILLING TO PAY THE COST INCURRED IN YOUR SEARCH FOR ME.

DEATH RECORDS:

JOEL HOPE- NO INFORMATION AVAILABLE
UNKNOWN BASSETT HOPE: WIFE OF JOEL HOPE
PARENTS OF GRANT SCARBROUGH
GRANDPARENTS OF GRANT SCARBROUGH

1870 Logan Co. Ky Census

This census was done by myself as a tool to aid in the research of various families. Many hours are often spent in reading a census only to find later that the one you were looking for was missed or you misinterpreted data, etc., which would necessitate the rereading of the census.

I added in the many marriages from the families I have researched and from a few other sources. This was done primarily to save the time of looking up these marriages and as an aid in establishing relationships of some of the families.

Included are miscellaneous notes which should be taken as clues, not proof. I felt they may provide a clue for someone as to where or what to look for in doing additional research.

Abbreviations used: (B) Black; (M) Mulatto; b. Born: pu = Place unknown at his time; RCT=Robertson Co. Tn; DCT=Davidson Co. Tn; SCT=Sumner Co.Tn; WCT=Wilson Co.Tn; TCK=Todd Co. Ky; BCK=Butler Co.Ky; WCK=Warren Co. Ky; SCK=Simpson Co. Ky

Ex. m. Harriet Redman RCT = married Harriet Redman Robertson Co. Tn
Marriages with no county & state listed were performed in Logan Co. Ky.
Ex. m. Harriet Reman 2 May 1859 = married in Logan Co. Ky.

If there are corrections on any of this, please feel free to write me so I can include it on my master copy and make corrections on remaining copies or the next printing.

I have found a great variance of spelling of names. I am sure some were listed incorrectly. As neighbors sometimes gave data to the census taken there is always some question as to correct spelling, ages, etc. I made every effort to write the information exactly as it appears on the microfilm. Some cases where there were obvious errors I made a note to indicate such.

Note that I added in many black marriages. These were taken from marriage records located in the County Clerks office in the Logan Co. Ky courthouse. In the very near future it is my intention to put these black marriages into a book.

It is my intention to start printing the 1880 Logan Co. Ky census in the very near future. I would appreciate hearing from anyone who may be interested in receiving a copy of the 1880 census when it is ready.

Echoes From The Past By Judy Maupin

The Scarborough Family

I recently had a letter from Billie S. Loshbaugh, P.O. Box 7152, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74105 concerning the Reuben Scarborough family. She wrote:

"I read the Oct. 11, 1980 article concerning the Scarbrough family in Echoes From the Past. Enclosed is the family of Reuben W. Scarborough who lived near Stella from 1840 to 1878. I would appreciate it if you are still doing the column if you would run this family and ask for any information that the readers have.

"I have written to Cheryl Oliver recently and offered to help her as I have a lot of the family history. The above man is my great-grandfather. I would welcome any help I could get on this family.

"Reuben W. Scarborough, born 1818 in Tennessee, married Mahala G. Covington, born 1814 in Kentucky. They married September 21, 1840 in Logan County, Kentucky. Their children were: Frances P., born 1843, married W.F. Estes; Mildred E., born 1845; Henry M., born 1846, married Nancy J. Marcus; Morgan D., born 1848, had daughter Ada Clark who died April 17, 1909 in Calloway County; Margaret G., born 1850, married J.G. Ragsdale Oct. 7, 1875, had daughter born Sept. 29, 1876; Esker, born Oct. 1852; and Martha, born Oct. 25, 1855, married John M. Langston. (There was another child, born 1859 who married a Marcus H., but the rest is illegible.)

"Reuben Scarborough and Mahala Covington lived in Calloway County about two miles from Stella for at least 40 years and maybe longer, from 1840 until 1876 when he died. She then lived with her son Morgan.

"I am trying to locate descendants of any of these eight children to see if I can find someone who knows who the father of Reuben W. Scarborough was. I am descended from Henry M. Scarborough. Any information would be appreciated."

After receiving this letter, I also had received the Stewart County History, which included quite a bit of information about the Scarborough family. I will include here the information which relates to the parents of Reuben Scarborough.

James Scarborough Jr. was the son of James and Mary Andrews Scarborough; he was born in Virginia in 1781. He married Frances DeBerry, sister of Edmond DeBerry of Montgomery County, North Carolina. He died in 1865.

A farmer, James settled in Stewart County about 1805. Their children were: Henry J., 1815-1868; Reuben; John Wesley, born 1819 and died 1885; William W., 1800-1856; Judge James Monroe, 1823-1893; and Asa DeBerry, 1813-1886; Elizabeth, born 1810; and Frances, born 1820.

The Stewart County book also comments that Reuben bought the land of Sarah and Reasoner Davis. It further stated that a history of Methodism in Murray showed that the Scarborough were active church members; Reuben left money in his will to a circuit rider, Reverend Dodson. The land on which Reuben and Mahala lived is near Goshen church, which was built on land donated by the family. Many family members are buried in the church cemetery.

If any readers would like to add information to the Scarborough family history, please let me know. I will also be glad to pass along information about other branches of the family to anyone who is interested and who does not already have it.

The Scarbrough Family

Last week, Mrs. Ernest Madrey called me to let me know that the Scarbrough family would be holding its reunion this Sunday, at the Ellis Community Center. She also said that another family member, Chyrel Oliver would be sending me some information on the Scarbrough family, in hopes that more family branches could be traced by a reader of this column.

Cheryl Oliver, of 7150 Bronner Circle, #2, Louisville, sent the following sketch to me and asked that anyone who could add to it please contact her.

Alexander Scarbrough Senior was born about 1789 in North Carolina; he married Clarissa (last name unknown) about 1811 and subsequently moved to and settled in Stewart County, Tennessee.

They were the parents of six children: Eliza (married John C. Pflueger); John W. (married Emily Chilcutt; Alexander (married Harriet Wood); Thomas (married Adna Henderson); Caroline (married James E. Owens); and James Pinkney (married Sarah Walker).

Eliza (Pflueger) had ten children: Clarissa Marriah (never married); Nancy (married John C. Miller); Sarah Ann (married Jackson Wimberley); John Fred (died at the age 13); Thomas Jefferson (died during Civil War of measles); James Levi (married Sarah Younge); William A. (married Parlee Nance); George Henry (married Rose Bell Alexander); Eliza Hyland (married W.D. "Billy" Thomas); Franklin Edward (married Mary Ann Chilcutt).

John W. had seven children; Sarah Ann (married Leon Cottom); John A. (married Alice Tucker); George Thomas (married Sonora Ann Chilcutt and Jane Oliver); Clarissa Alabama (married Hiram Moody); Andrew Allan (married Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Cooper); Nancy Mary Conley (married W. J. Chilcutt); and Julia Olif (married William C. Oliver).

" I am also working on the following family lines and would be interested in corresponding with anyone who has information about them:

On my father's side: Oliver, Parker, Coleman, Moody, Chilcutt, Spiceland, and Price. On my mother's side: Wilson, Harmon, Clark, Lamb, Elkins, St, John, Milam, Holley, Franklin, Whitnell, Stagner, Garrison, Maddox, Crabtree, Looney, Dawson, and Mathis."

Thanks again to all the readers who have responded to requests for information. It's very exciting to be able to help people trace their family trees.

Reunion at center

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Madrey hosted the 10th annual Scarbrough reunion held at Ellis Center in Murray.

A potluck luncheon was served with Cecil Like asking the blessing.

The group shared very old and new pictures and had much discussion of the family genealogy. W.C. McDaniel presented each one with a Scarbrough family crest.

Charles Walter Scarbrough shared his experiences of a visit to Scarbrough, England.

Entertainment was by Mrs. Rosetta Todd and her daughters, Rebecca and Christina Todd, the latter two being members of Westwood 4-H Club. They were assisted in singing by Jennifer Wright. Candice Fisher and Rebecca Todd sang a duet.

Present were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter Scarbrough, Dover, Tenn.; W.C. McDaniel and Mary Wade, Big Sandy, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Donn Fisher and children, Candice and Chase, Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Mabel Scarbrough and Miss Helen Scarbrough, Paris, Tenn.; Lee Scarbrough of Paris and the former Lee Allen of Huntington, Tenn., who were married Nov. 1;

Mr. and Mrs. Max Oliver, Kirksey; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Like, Walena Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Todd and daughters, Mary Ann, Christina and Rebecca, Miss Jennifer Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Burton, Gordon Moody and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Madrey, all of Murray.

Family members unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lashbaugh, Mrs. Norma Scarbrough Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Keel and Mr. and Mrs. Don Cayard.

The group made plans for another reunion to be held in the fall.

Scarbrough reunion at Ellis Center

Ernest and Murrell Madrey hosted the ninth annual Scarbrough reunion which was held Sunday, Oct. 6, at Ellis Community Center, Murray.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon.

Entertainment included singing by some of the Westwood 4-H Club members, Mary Ann, Christina and Rebecca Todd, and their mother, Mrs. Rosetta Todd. They sang several selections with Mary Ann as piano accompanist. Mary Ann sang one number while accompanying herself on the auto harp. Candice Fisher of Memphis, Tenn., sang with them for one song.

Lacy Keel presented a special talk on the early background and genealogy of the Scarborough families from the time of the township, Scarborough, England, to the present when families have spread out over Henry County, Tenn., and Calloway County.

Present were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Keel, Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Ms. Gaynell Keel and Ms. Robbye Keel, Dover, Tenn.; W.C. McDaniel, Big Sandy, Tenn.;

Mary Wade, McKenzie, Tenn.; Kathleen Fisher and children, Chase and Candice, Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cayard, Ormond Beach, Fla.;

Major James Scarborough Family

By LUCILLE S. KRISCH

Major James Scarborough, his Ancestors and Descendants, by Jewel Davis Scarborough of Abilene, Texas, is Vol. 3, to Mrs. Scarborough's series, "Southern Kith and Kin."

Lovingly dedicated to her grandchildren, Frank Dallas and Charles Davis Scarborough, it is a lovely book, beginning with the Scarborough family during the seventeenth century living on the eastern shore of Virginia and Maryland. Though one group settled in New England after the Revolutionary War they seem to have all migrated to North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina and Georgia.

The Scarboroughs of Eastern Shore of Virginia were descended from Henry Scarborough of North Walsham, County Norfolk, England. He was baptized there Sept. 21, 1565, died Aug. 24, 1617, there is a monument to him in the local church. Here he married Mary Humberstone, daughter of John Humberstone of London, County Norfolk, England. His will (Norwich) was proved in 1617. Though it is thought he had more children, there is record of four sons: Edmond, who married Hannah Butler and imigrated to Virginia; Henry, who was baptized in 1590, and died Oct. 9, 1606; Samuel; John, who was baptized in 1598 and married a daughter of William King of Hempstead, Norfolk county.

Mrs. Scarborough has done extensive research in this family and carries the lineage in detail from the early part of the seventeenth century to the present day, it is well indexed, clearly written, easily followed. Among the interesting items on the Scarborough family is the story of William Scarborough of Bacon's Rebellion.

Families who have intermarried with the Scarboroughs as listed in the book are: The Abbots, Adams, Alexanders, Austins, Barnes, Berrys, Braswells, Cannons, Burkhaulters, Chaneys, Charltons, Clarks, Coxs, Claytons, Deans, DeMosses, Dills, Doggetts, Sunns, Dandridges, Curtis, Eagles, Easons, Garners, Ellisons, Garlands, Garrisons, Givens, Hagamans, Hardety, Heavenhill, Holmes, Justice, Jones, Milnews, Moores, O'Quinns, Masseys, Pyles, Parkers, Prothos, Rawlings, Rileys, Rogers, Searcys, Sibleys, Singletons, Slaughters, Stringers, Walls, Wests, Welborns, Whitsons, Whittingtons, Wiggintons, Wises, Wrights, Wylies, Wymans and many others.

The other two volumes of "Southern Kith and Kin" are "The Davises and Locketts." To have made such a contribution to posterity is a fabulous undertaking and one deserving notice. Only those of us who have worked with genealogy can know the tremendous force and perseverance that goes into searching the records, compiling them and then, the difficult task of assembling the facts in proper order. Mrs. Scarborough has won the reputation of a remarkable lady, brilliant, energetic and generous. A truly fine genealogist.

A Tradition

A tradition concerning the Gillespie family.

There is a tradition that John McDonald married Mary Gillespie, and changed his name to that of his wife's (Gillespie) about 1740 in Ireland. It is said he fought for Prince Charles Stuart. There is a record of a Charles Gillespie who was born in County Derry, Ireland in 1789, who came to Lancaster, Penn., in 1823, and became a citizen in 1827. He is said to have married three, his first two wives' names are not known, his third wife however, was Maria Scravendykes. He died in 1882. He had a sister, Anna Gillespie who married a McKenna. They are said to have been the grandchildren of John (McDonald) Gillespie.

The Lawlers

The Lawler family have recently organized a family association and are preparing to publish a family book. It is tradition that there were three Lawler brothers who came to Virginia from Ireland about 1745, these brothers were: John, Michael and Thomas. Thomas Lawler is said to have been the progenitor of the Lawlers who later came into the Carolinas and then into Mississippi before coming to Texas in 1833. We have reason to believe the Lawlers came with the Robertson colony into Texas. Levi Thomas Lawler was one of the early settlers in Texas and we have a picture of him with a group of Texas' Sons of the Republic. Anyone having data on the Lawler family, or who wish to join the family in compiling their data may write this column. Mr. Jesse Lawler of San Antonio is the genealogist for the Lawlers and will welcome any contributions that may be available.

John Hooper, son of Obidiah Hooper, married Mary (Polly) Ward, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth (Adams) Word. I am of the opinion that my Joshua Ward Hooper's (b. 1798 in Ga.) father and mother. So far, I have all sorts of data on the descendants of Obidiah Hooper's other children and their descendants, but to date no search has found data on son John Hooper who married Mary Ward. He was in Franklin county Georgia, in 1813, where he and Mary sold land. Obidiah Hooper and his wife Marsilas, came from Virginia to Georgia. Obidiah died in Franklin county in 1803 where his will is on file. I am working with several others on this line but so far we have been unable to locate any information. I will be glad to exchange data with anyone on this line, I have enough notes to publish a booklet. Mrs. C. H. Shaw, Box 447, Tomball, Texas.

Robert Allen Hewlett born in Hopins county, Kentucky, 1884, was the son of Charles Hector and Mary (Henry) Hewlett of Kentucky, he married Ellen Miranda Johnson, the daughter of Johnston Johnson who was born in Gulfport, Miss. These Hewletts intermarried with the Vances in North Carolina or Virginia. Patricia Reed was the granddaughter of James Reed whose son married a LeBaron. I would like to correspond with others working on these lines. Mrs. Robert Hewlett, San Antonio, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Madrey,

Excuse the typewritten page but I can think better when I type it and faster. I do appreciate your answer It seems that I can tell you are a Scarbrough.

Actually I don't have any information and neither does my Mother. The only thing we have is on Oscar Edwards (my father) death certificate is the name of his father and name of his mother and no details about them. As I said before my father was an orphan by the time he was 11 years old. He has a sister and a brother and we don't even know their names. His sister died when he was 3 and then he and his brother were adopted out in different families and they got separated and when they were 35 or older after World War I they ran into each other down in Texas just on the street and shortly after that his brother was killed by a train as he worked on the railroad. Now this story just does not seem possible to us in this day and age how you could lose track of your own brother and sister but that is the way it was. I do know that his brother had at least one name that was Edward because he named my brother James Edward and the Edward was for this brother.

Henry Scarbrough was from Calloway County, Ky. (my grandfather) he married Mannie Marcus from Obion, Tenn. and Oscar Edward was born in Obion, Tenn. His birthday was March 26, 1889 (O.E.) I have no idea how old Henry was when he died but he may be buried somewhere a round Obion.

Oscar Edward died March 7, 1941 and he is buried in Sunny Lane Cemetery in Okla. that is a question you said Mrs. Graham asked.

Henry Scsrbrough must have died around 1900 or 1902. I don't know when he was born or where he is buried.

The Scarbrough name is fascinating as you go through the geneology -- we have just organized here in Tulsa and I had never really gotten into it before but I have always thought it very strange that we have no relatives on fathers side and it must have been very lonely for him.

Comments From Readers

This week I am printing some comments and inquiries I have received lately. The first is in response to the column on Pottertown; I was asked where the information about Carmack came from, so I quote from Dr. Milton Henry's excellent book, Land Between the Rivers. This was one of the towns, or post-offices listed in the book:

"Carmack may have first been know as Pottertown. It was located near the Cumberland River in Lyon County. The Pottertown settlement was so called because the pottery manufacture and store of J. Frank Bonner were located there. Carmack was named from Carmack Creek nearby, and the early settlers professed to believe that Carmack Creek was named for Senator Edward W. Carmack, a U.S. Senator from Tennessee, soon after the turn of the century. The Carmack Post Office was established January 10, 1890 and J. Frank Bonner was the first postmaster. It was discontinued March 31, 1912."

Dr. Henry also mentioned in a section on various industries which had been located between the rivers that a pottery factory had been established in Lyon County in the latter part of the 19th Century. This had been done by Frank Bonner, who had come from Calloway County in 1875 or 1876, and had run a similar business at Pottertown in that county. He also ran a general store at Carmack.

I had a request from Mrs. Ernest Madrey for information on the Scarborough family, who had evidently migrated from Stewart County to Calloway and Graves Counties. Mrs. Madrey has been corresponding with a Mrs. Billie Lashbaugh in Oklahoma, who is the granddaughter of Henry M. Scarborough. She is mainly interested in locating the parents of Reuben Scarborough. The information which she has been able to find out, which may provide a clue to one of my readers, is as follows:

Reuben Scarborough married Mahala Covington in 1840 in Logan County, later moving to Calloway County. They lived about two miles from Stella, although it is not certain in which direction. Reuben died in 1876; after that, his wife Mahala moved in with a daughter, Ada Clark until she died in 1909. Their children were: Morgan B., born 1848; Francis P., born 1843, married W.F. Estes; Mildred, born 1845; Henry M., born 1846, married Nancy J. Marcus, Margaret G., born 1850, married J.G. Ragsdale in 1875; Esker, born 1852; Martha, born 1855, married John M. Langston, and Marcus, born 1859.

If there are any surviving members of any of these lines, it would be greatly appreciated if they could contact either myself or Mrs. Madrey, who will then pass on the information.

I invite queries on families at any time and will be glad to help in any way possible, either by passing on information which I may have, or by putting one person in contact with someone who will be able to help. The program, Roots has been given quite a bit of publicity to genealogy, but actually, there have been many people trying to trace their families for many years. If an interest is shown in this, I will devote a future column to some possible sources of information, and ways in which a person interested in tracing his ancestry can get you started. Just let me know if this is what will interest you.

Dear Mrs. Madrey,

I do not seem to have anything helpful about your ~~Leshbough~~ family.

Mrs. Foreman H. Graham, 1017 Sharpe Street, Murray, Kentucky has done much work in Calloway County and I suggest that you write to her.

Good Hunting,

William Fitzgerald

To Whom It May Concern

I read with interest an article that appeared in the Murray-Calloway County Shopper, October 5, of how the Shroat family have been re-united after a long period of years.

I am writing in regards to a Mrs. Billie Loshbough, Oklahoma, who is working on genology of her grandfather, Henry Scarbrough. I am Murrell Scarbrough Madrey and have become quite interested in this search. I have received several letters from Mrs. Loshbough and have written written a number of people, and have ask quite a few elderly people of Calloway County, if they ever knew Henry Scarbrough, and to date haven't found any trace of Henry Scarbrough, father of Oscar Edward.

Mrs. Loshbough stated in one of her letters:

"Henry Scarbrough was from Calloway County, Ky. (my grandfather) he married Mannie Marcus from Obion, Tenn. and Oscar Edward was born in Obion, Tenn. His birthday was March 26, 1889 (O. E.) I have no idea how old Henry was when he died but he may be buried somewhere around Obion.

Oscar Edward died March 7, 1941 and he is buried in Sunny Lane Cemetery in Okla. City, Okla.

Henry Scarbrough must have died around 1900 or 1902. I don't know when he was born or where he is buried."

I certainly would appreciate any information you might send me, and am enclosing a self-addressed envelope and would deeply appreciate a prompt reply

Sincerely
Murrell Madrey

Dear Mr. Fitzgerald,

I received your letter dated Jan. 5, 1967, in regards to Henry Scarbrough, grand father of Mrs. Loshbaugh.

I have checked with Mrs. Forman Graham, Dr. Charles Scarbrough's mother, Mrs. Lois Waterfield and a number of elderly people of the County, and to date, have not been able to get any trace of Henry Scarbrough.

I am mailing Mrs. Loshbaugh's letter to you, and a stamped envelope for returning, hoping that you may gain more information, than you did from the letter I have written previously.

It would please me very much, if you would favor me with another trial in finding the answers to Mrs. Loshbaugh's questions.

This work has become Very interesting, and Thanking you in advance for what ever help you may give.

Sincerely
Murrell Scarbrough Madrey
(Mrs.) Ernest Madrey.

Mrs. Slaten:

If you think that your Great Grandfather Scarborough was in Graves county, Kentucky, when his son John Terry Scarborough was born; and if you do not know the name of G. Grandfather Scarborough; we suggest that you have a researcher search the 1850 census (microfilm) for Graves county, for a Scarborough with a son, John Terry, aged 7.

Checking Graves county tax lists backward from 1875 (at intervals of four or five years, if you wish) should tell you when your Scarboroughs came to Graves county.

If you already know the first name of G. G.father S., then check in the Stewart county, Tennessee records. McClain's A History of STEWART COUNTY, TENNESSEE, 1965 lists several Scarborough's. Three of the 1820-30's period were: John, James, and Aca.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Ann McDonnell

How do I submit my genealogy to FamilySearch Internet?

First, obtain permission from all living persons mentioned in your genealogy to submit their information to FamilySearch Internet. Remember, notes and sources attached to an entry for a deceased person may include information about a living person. You must remove any information about living persons if you do not have their permission to submit it.

Second, review your notes and sources to make sure they don't contain any offensive or inappropriate statements about another person. Remove such information.

Third, save your genealogy in a GEDCOM file format on your personal computer. Many genealogical computer programs provide the capability to save your records in a GEDCOM file format where the file is named with a .ged extension (example:eastleyhistory.ged). Please see the instructions provided with your genealogy software for more information.

Fourth, send the GEDCOM file that you have created to the FamilySearch Internet web site. Once you have agreed to the conditions for submitting your genealogy, you should follow the submission steps. (Please note: To send GEDCOM files to FamilySearch Internet, your web browser must be Netscape Navigator 2.0 or higher or Microsoft Internet Explorer 4.0 or higher.)

John,

Sorry, I meant to include directions in my earlier note. Yes, this is the one reunion you'd be interested in.

Janet and Roger Nehrt live on the west side of Crothersville, about a half mile west of the Crothersville cemetery on the same side of Main Street. (Youknow where the cemetery is, don't you?) If you are coming FROM Tampico, it is at the top of Burgher Hill on your left--a ranch home facing the east. A long lane goes on past their house back to Roger's mother's and sister's homes. You might take a run out there after you visit mother just to confirm the location.

Usually people start arriving just a little before 12 noon. We try to eat by 12:30.

Bob

Bob, I would be interested in the reunion at your sister's farm. Where is your sister's farm located.Also what is the starting time . Maud's Briners would be on Lemuel's side. She was his sister. They would be "Blood Related" to my half sisters Janet,Judith & Elizabeth.

I would be bringing family pictures to share .Most people are interested in pictures. The geneology can confuse a lot of people.

Thanks!!!
John

John,

Yes, there will be a couple of them. Ours, Otto's and Maude's descendants, will be Saturday, July 9 at my sister's farm home in Crothersville. It's a pitch-in but the meat is usually provided. Be warned that I'm the only one that is really in to genealogy but there might be several (besides my mother) who have heard of your step-dad and would like to hear about that side of the family. You'll be very welcome.

The other Briner reunion is Otto's brother's family--Charles Berl Briner--and they wouldn't necessarily know much about Maude's brothers. It is in June but I don't know the date or place. Doubt that you are interested but if you are I can get the date.

Bob

FAMILY HISTORY & GENEALOGY CONFERENCE
AUGUST 19 & 20, 2005
INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY • INDIANA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Midwestern Roots 2005: Family History and Genealogy Conference
at the Indianapolis Marriott East, 21st Street and Shadeland Avenue

The Midwestern Roots 2005 conference is presented by the Indiana Historical Society (IHS) and the Indiana Genealogical Society (IGS). No matter how long you have been pursuing your family history there is always a need to continue to learn about different record sources and the history of the time periods in which your ancestors lived. What better way than to learn from some of the top professionals in their fields?

Come Early and Research

There are a number of genealogical research facilities located in the Indianapolis metro area. They range from county libraries and area museums to national organizations. The William Henry Smith Memorial Library at the Indiana History Center and the Genealogy Division of the Indiana State Library will be open extended hours Thursday, August 18. The Smith Library, the Indiana State Archives, and the Indiana State Library are offering resource orientation sessions on Thursday, August 18. There is no cost for the resource orientation sessions, but you must have a reservation. To make a reservation for a session call (317) 233-5659. A complete list of additional research facilities may be found on the conference Web site, or call (317) 233-5659 to request a list of facilities and contact information.

Indiana State Archives (ISA)

6440 East 30th Street, Indianapolis, IN
Thursday, August 18, Research Hours 8 A.M.–4:30 P.M.
  ISA Resource Orientation 10 A.M. and 1 P.M.
  Program is limited to 20 people per session.
  Call (317) 233-5659 to make a reservation.
Friday, August 19, Research Hours 8 A.M.–4:30 P.M.
Saturday, August 20, Closed

The Indiana State Archives is the official repository for Indiana government records of permanent historical and legal significance. It contains records of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches going back to the 1790s; papers of every governor, and acts and reports of the General Assembly. Holdings also include military records, records of the General Land Office for Indiana, more than 100,000 aerial photographs (including some of the earliest ever taken in Indiana), and photographs from the Department of Natural Resources and the State Fair Commission. The Web site for the archives is www.in.gov/icpr/archives/.

Genealogy Division of the Indiana State Library (ISL)

140 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, IN
Thursday, August 18, Research Hours 8 A.M.–7 P.M.
  ISL Resource Orientation 10 A.M. and 1 P.M.
  Program is limited to 20 people per session.
  Call (317) 233-5659 to make a reservation.
Friday, August 19, Research Hours 8 A.M.–4:30 P.M.
Saturday, August 20, Research Hours 8:30 A.M.–4 P.M.

The Genealogy Division of the Indiana State Library houses one of the Midwest's major collections of family and local history. Emphasis is on Indiana and the states from which Indiana was settled, particularly Virginia, North Carolina, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Pennsylvania, but there are also significant holdings on other Mid-Atlantic states, New England, Germany, and Great Britain. Discover more about the state library at www.statelib.lib.in.us.

William Henry Smith Memorial Library at the Indiana History Center

450 West Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN
Thursday, August 18, Research Hours 10 A.M.–9 P.M.
  IHS Resource Orientation 10 A.M. and 1 P.M.
  Program is limited to 20 people per session.

Friday, August 19, Research Hours 10 A.M.–5 P.M.
Saturday, August 20, Research Hours 10 A.M.–5 P.M.

The William Henry Smith Memorial Library at the Indiana History Center contains a world famous collection of Indiana and Old Northwest material, including books, maps, photographs, and manuscripts. Not only do the resources and collections help tell Indiana's story, but they can help tell the story of your family as well. The Thursday pre-conference presentations will highlight the resources available to family history researchers in the William Henry Smith Memorial Library. The presentation will be followed by orientation to the library. To plan your visit go to the IHS Web site at www.indianahistory.org.

Become a member of the Indiana Historical Society or the Indiana Genealogical Society and receive the member registration discount.

Indiana Historical Society

Indiana's Storyteller: Connecting People to the Past.

Pre-Conference Activities—Thursday, August 18, 2005

Computer Labs - Indiana History Center, 450 West Ohio Street

The number of genealogical resources available on the Internet increases daily. The first of two computer labs will give an overview of how to access that information and where to start. The more advanced afternoon lab will highlight Civil War sources. Both labs will be presented by Amy Johnson Crow. Participants will have a live connection to the Internet and should have a basic knowledge of Microsoft Internet Explorer. Seating is limited to 20 participants per workshop.

Genealogical Research on the Internet, 9 A.M–NOON

This computer lab will cover research strategies, search techniques, and methods of evaluation. Attendees will also learn ways to use the Internet to help with "traditional" research.

Searching for Civil War Ancestors Online, 1–3 P.M.

Civil War materials abound online. This computer lab will cover major online resources, where to find them and how to use them to their fullest extent.

Library Workshop - Indiana State Library, 140 North Senate Avenue

Genealogy Resources Library Workshop, 9 A.M.–NOON

This workshop was designed especially for frontline library workers and volunteers who answer questions from genealogy patrons. The workshop will be presented by Suzanne Hahn, Sharon Howell, Susan Kaufman, and Diane Sharp. The subjects covered will include strategy, free online sites, Indiana online sites, locations of records in Indiana, printed sources, and collection development. Seating is limited to 50 participants.

Writing Workshop - Indiana History Center, 450 West Ohio Street

Preparing Your Family History for Publication: A Writing Workshop, 10–11:30 A.M. OR 1–2:30 P.M.

This workshop will focus on communicating effectively. It will include a discussion of essential writing skills, such as organization, documentation, effective word choice, and clarity. Judith Q. McMullen and M. Teresa Baer, editors at the Indiana Historical Society Press, will also use samples of writing on genealogical topics to illustrate common grammatical and stylistic problems.

After the discussion the participants will put their writing skills to practical use by editing writing samples together. The presenters will then meet one-on-one with the participants to critique their individual writing samples.

Along with the registration form and fees, each participant should submit a brief writing sample, including a short outline of his or her project along with a one-page writing sample. These projects may be for self publication of family history or submissions for professional publications. Seating is limited to 10 participants per time period .

Evening Panel Discussion at the Indiana History Center, 6–9 P.M.

History and Genealogy: Why Not Both?

Some prominent genealogists have recently declared, the time has come for genealogists and historians to work together. Genealogical and historical scholarship overlap in many areas even though the fields were mutually separated for most of the twentieth century. Come join your fellow researchers—genealogists AND historians—Thursday evening, at the Indiana History Center (IHC) in downtown Indianapolis on the historic Central Canal. The evening will begin with a dessert reception at 6 P.M. followed by a lively panel discussion, History and Genealogy: Why Not Both? Nationally renowned historical genealogists Elizabeth Shown Mills and Curt B. Witcher will meet Indiana historian James H. Madison and migration historian Marianne S. Wokeck to explore how each of the fields can enrich the other, with a range of topics—from uncovering the slightest detail of one life to seeing human history more clearly because of that life.

Bus transportation will be available from the Indianapolis Marriott East to the IHC for the evening presentation. The bus will leave from the host hotel at 5:15 P.M. and return to the hotel at the conclusion of the program, approximately 9 P.M. A nominal fee will be charged for this service. There is also parking available at the IHC.

Stay at the Indianapolis Marriott East

By staying at the host hotel you will be supporting the conference and the sponsoring organizations, be close to the action, and be eligible for special offers and prizes, including a two-night stay at the Indianapolis Marriott East (offer not valid for conference dates). As a guest of the Marriott you may also attend the Thursday evening reception and lecture at no charge. Please plan to join us at the Marriott.

Hotel Accommodations

Hotel reservations may be made at the Indianapolis Marriott East, 7202 East 21st Street, by calling (317) 352-1231 or (800) 228-9290. Indicate your association with Midwestern Roots 2005 to receive the special $92 room rate. Room reservations must be made by August 1, 2005.

Accessibility

All conference facilities are accessible to those with physical disabilities. If you require special accommodations, please let us know in advance: phone (317) 232-1882 or (800) 447-1830; fax (317) 234-0427; or e-mail welcome@indianahistory.org.

Speakers' Biographical Information

Kandie Adkinson, the Kentucky Secretary of State's administrative supervisor of the Land Office Division, researches land office records to assist genealogists, historians, surveyors, and title companies. Adkinson's technical leaflet, "The Kentucky Land Grant System," serves as a reference guide for researchers across the country.

M. Teresa Baer, editor of family history publications at the Indiana Historical Society Press since 1999, has written numerous genealogical articles for The Hoosier Genealogist and has spoken on family history topics throughout the state. Baer holds an MA degree in comparative history, a BA degree in history, and an international studies certificate from Indiana University.

Randy Bixby has been a reference librarian in the Indiana State Library Genealogy Division for the past eight years. A native of Wisconsin, she spent twelve years in Virginia working for the federal government and in a public library.

Tony Burroughs, FUGA, teaches genealogy at Chicago State University and is the author of Black Roots. He has appeared on Saturday Morning (CBS), World News Tonight (ABC), and Ancestors (PBS). He discovered the original instructions for the Soundex and received the Distinguished Service Award from NGS.

Vicki Casteel, visual collections archivist at the Indiana State Archives, has worked primarily with the photograph collections; the Board of State Charities records, including those on the eugenics movement; and the Camp Morton records.

James L. Cooper, retired DePauw University history professor, has been mining commissioners' records for more than two decades while researching Indiana's historic bridges. Cooper has written two books about the Hoosiers who built the state's bridges from 1870-1942 and how they engineered them.

Kenneth D. Crews is the Samuel R. Rosen II Professor in the Indiana University School of Law–Indianapolis and in the IU School of Library and Information Science. He is also Associate Dean of the Faculties for Copyright Management, and in that capacity he directs the Copyright Management Center based at Indiana University–Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). The ALA recently named Crews the first recipient of the L. Ray Patterson Copyright Award.

Amy Johnson Crow, a Certified Genealogist, has published articles in Ancestry, Heritage Quest, Genealogical Computing, and NGS *News*Magazine, and co-authored Online Roots. Her "Heritage Help" column appears in the OGS Genealogy News. Crow received the Distinguished Service Award from FGS for her work as the Ohio state coordinator for the Civil War Soldiers System project.

James M. Freed has taught genetics and been engaged in genealogical research for several decades. Freed is currently the president of the Delaware County (Ohio) chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society. He has lectured on the use of DNA in genealogical research since 2001 and is the project administrator for two family surname DNA projects.

Diane Gagel is a college instructor, freelance writer, and professional genealogist. Gagel is the author of three books: Ohio Photographers, 1839–1900; Windows on the Past: Identifying, Dating, and Preserving Photographs; and Directory of Photographers in the United States 1888–1889 and Canada 1889. Currently, she is the president of the Ohio Genealogical Society.

Suzanne Hahn is director of reference services at the William Henry Smith Memorial Library at the Indiana Historical Society. Before joining the IHS staff in 2000, she worked at the Library of Congress and Center for Naval Analyses in Washington D.C.

Sharon Howell was a high school librarian in Whiteland, Indiana, for twenty-nine years. She is past treasurer of the Indiana Genealogical Society and edits the "Once a Hoosier" column in their newsletter. As co-chair of the IGS's Cemetery Project, Howell provided driving directions to all known cemeteries in the state, past and present.

John S. Humphrey is the current president of the Mid-Atlantic Germanic Society and vice president of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania. His principal genealogical publication is the fourteen-volume set, Pennsylvania Births, which lists more than 170,000 births in pre-1800 eastern Pennsylvania. Currently, Humphrey is working on genealogical records created during World War II.

Susan Kaufman, formerly a librarian in the Historical Genealogy Department of the Allen County Public Library, is a director of the FGS, editor of the Ethnic-International column of the FGS FORUM, and national publicity chair for the 2005 FGS conference in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Elizabeth Kelley Kerstens, CGRS, CGL, is the creator of the software program Clooz—the electronic filing cabinet for genealogical records—and co-creator of the software program GeneWeaver for family health history. She is editor of the NGS *News*Magazine, managing editor of Genealogical Computing, and author of two books on Plymouth, Michigan.

James H. Madison is the Thomas and Kathryn Miller Professor of History and former chair of the department of history, Indiana University, Bloomington. In 1994, IU awarded Madison the Sylvia E. Bowmen Distinguished Teaching Award. Currently, he teaches courses on U.S. history, Indiana history, World War II, and the automobile. His publications include: The Indiana Way: A State History; Eli Lilly: A Life; and A Lynching in the Heartland: Race and Memory in America. Madison is the recipient of the Indiana Historical Society's Hoosier Historian Award and serves as a member of the Society's Board of Trustees. The Organization of American Historians recently named Madison a Distinguished Lecturer.

Judith Q. McMullen, assistant editor for family history publications at the Indiana Historical Society Press, has been published in The Hoosier Genealogist for her work on early African-American pioneers and young Abraham Lincoln. McMullen holds an MA degree in English and a BA degree in journalism and has taught writing courses and children's literature at four universities.

Diane Sharp is head of the Genealogy Division, Indiana State Library. Sharp has an MA degree from the Indiana University School of Library Science and is a long-time member of the IHS Genealogy Program Advisory Committee.

Elizabeth Shown Mills has pushed the cutting edge of genealogical research methodology, standards, and quality for over twenty-five years. Mills is past president of the Board for Certification of Genealogists and the American Society of Genealogists, as well as the editor of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly for sixteen years. Her publications include Evidence! Citation & Analysis for the Family Historian and Professional Genealogy: A Manual for Researchers, Writers, Editors, Lecturers, and Librarians. Based on three decades of research, Mills' latest book, Isle of Canes, is an historical novel about a multiracial family told against the backdrop of colonial and antebellum Louisiana.

Martin Tuohy has served on the staff of the National Archives and Records Administration—Great Lakes Region in Chicago since 1992. He has an AB in history and an MA in U.S. history. Tuohy is the author of several essays published by the The Hoosier Genealogist, and is currently writing a book about African-American coal miners in the 1870s Midwest.

Sheryl Vanderstel has worked as assistant director of education at Conner Prairie and as the director of educational programs at the Indiana Historical Bureau. For the past 15 years, she has planned and executed seasonal historic dinner programs for the Huddleston Farm Inn Museum. She also teaches hearth cooking classes and is currently working on an annotated reprint of the first cookbook published in Indiana.

Betty L. Warren has presented genealogy programs since 1989 and is a volunteer at the Johnson County Museum of History's genealogy department. President of the Indiana Genealogical Society since 2001, she has earned professional certification as a genealogist from Brigham Young University.

Curt B. Witcher, MLS, FUGA, is manager of the Historical Genealogy Department of the Allen County Public Library and curator of its Rare & Fine Book Collection. He is former president of NGS and FGS, and founding president of the IGS. He is also a member of the editorial board for The Hoosier Genealogist.

Yes, I have a scanner. I hope we do not have difficulty getting together...my daughter is starting baseball this week and my husband is in Fort Benning, GA until the end of July so we will be gone some visiting him. Just give me a date and I will try to make it happen. Thank you so much for doing this! Hope to see you soon, Jacci

Hello John and Mary!
I am a distant relative :). I had mentioned to my great uncle Bill that I would be interested in Genealogy information for our family and he said that you might be able to help me out. He said you had information on to James Jefferson b. 2-26-1807 - d. 12-20-189i and Almyra (Fish) Stigall; b. 6-226-1811 - d. 6-2-1883; (my great-great-great grandparents.

I would love to have this information! I would be happy to mail you a check for any copying costs.

Thank you!

Subject: Hello John

We enjoyed our visit with you and Mary and hope you have a good time for the rest of your trip. I was looking up that info. you want on Thomas J. Stigall Jr. and here is all I have on that.

Tom died (well into his 90's-he was 83 years old in 1991) but his widow may still be living in Danville, KY. (I think that is in Boyle County) Her name is Pauline (Tuttle) Stigall and I think she has 2 sons and one daughter. I think they are Tom, Bob and Lynn; Tom being "Doctor" Thomas T. (Tuttle) Stigall; last known address: 8743 Trinity Ave. - Baton Rouge, LA 70806 - I do not know his phone number and it may be unlisted. When I talked to her (a few years ago), Pauline lived at 2050 Old Lex. Rd, Danville, KY 40422 The phone number there was:
-----------------859-236-6741------------------- If I get any more info. on this, I will send it to you. Also will send the other info. on my sisters.
HAVE A SAFE TRIP
BILL

Dear John & Mary:

I just Love Paula & Janette, there dolls. We are related, It's been a long time since I have worked on Genealogy, and I don't have a lot of the Adams family, How were related is Mason's granddaughter,( I think) Paula & Janette's mothers sister, Florence was married to Mr Snow, she died, and My Grandmothers Mother's sister Lillian and him got married. My Grandmother's name was Sarah Martha Adams, I can't remember her Mother's name. Mason & My Great great grandpa were brother's is name was Taylor Adams. Like I said I hope I'm telling you right, it's been a long time since I've done anything with the family and I don't have a lot on is side, Paula and Janette have shared a lot with me, but taking came if my father stopped me from doing a lot, He passed away Dec 15, 2004 SO I just moved my computer down stairs, and all my files are still up, I'm bring them down a little at a time. If I can help you in any way I'll be happy to. Thank You for your email, Hope to hear from you again. Wanda Pate

Hello,

Either our cell Phone was either lost or stolen this afternoon, so we have had it put in limbo unless it turns up here in Tunica. If you need us for any reason, you will need to contact the Grand Casino RV Resort in Robinsonville, MS. The phone number between 8 - 5 is 1-800-946-4946 ext. 14739. The rest of the time you will need to dial the number without the extension. Sorry about the inconvenience. Will let you know if it is found before we leave here next Wednesday.

Love to all,

Beve

Celebrating Avon

From Country Crossroads to Community

September 17 @ 1:00-6:00 p.m.

A day to celebrate where we live and the people who have made Avon such a great place to call home!

Outdoor Fun

To showcase Avon's progress through the years, photographers will be ready to snap pictures of adults and children with a vintage fire truck or Avon's newest and finest fire-fighting equipment. Other photo opportunities include an antique car, Panther Racing Team's IRL race car, Hendricks Power's bucket truck, and the Roland Retirement Communities' trolley. (There will even be a Bounce House for the youngsters!)

Indoor Activities

1:00 p.m. – Silly Safari Wild Animal Show - A unique interactive experience for young and old features Alligator Aaron and a variety of wild creatures.

3:00 p.m. – Mike Redmond - Author, humorist, and syndicated columnist Mike Redmond will tell tales of growing up in Indiana, as featured in his books. (Books will be available for purchase and autographing.)

4:00 p.m. Residents' Recognition – A special tribute to honor Avon's founding families, long-time area residents, and community leaders.

5:00 p.m. – Magician Marcus Lehman – Join in the fun of an up close and personal magic show featuring the "Magic in Books".

Food & Fellowship

All this fun making you hungry? Snacks will be sold in the downstairs concession area...a great place to sit and visit with friends and neighbors.

Thanks to Celebrating Avon sponsors:

Roland Retirement Communities

Hendricks Power Cooperative

and Lincoln Bank

Remember, Celebrating Avon is just the first of many Avon area activities in September. The Avon Community Heritage Festival is hosting an 11K Run-Walk on September 17 and will culminate their festivities on September 23-24.

The Basics of Selling on ebay®

Book Discussion Groups Select Mystic River and The Kite Runner

September 13, Library Conference Room

Adults who love to read and participate in lively book discussions are invited to join one of the library's two book discussion groups meeting the second Tuesday of each month. The Brown Bag Discussion Group meets from 11 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. and participants are invited to bring a sack lunch to discuss Mystic River, by Dennis Lehane.

The evening group meets from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. and will be discussing The Kite Runner, by Khaled Hosseini. Copies of these discussion books, provided by Avon Friends of the Library, are available at the Adult Services Reference Desk.

Introduction to HeritageQuest™ Online

Thursday, September 22, 6:30—7:30 p.m.

Meeting Room A

HeritageQuest Online provides a unique, growing collection of research materials for tracing family history and American culture. Beginning or professional genealogists can use the HeritageQuest Online database from the convenience of home or at the library.

HeritageQuest Online is designed for those who are either just beginning their family research, or who after years of work, are still uncovering their past. With over 25,000 books, the entire U.S. Federal Census, and other expanding collections, the database offers a chance to tap in to one of the largest collections of genealogy material in the country.

Avon's Adult Services Reference Librarian Susie Grover will show how to use the HeritageQuest Online database Thursday evening September 22 at the Avon-Washington Township Public Library. Demonstrations include a basic search of census material, a search of magazines and books, and access of scanned census images to view pages of census data. Please register for this free program online, at the Adult Services Reference Desk, or by phone at 317-272-4818, ext. 229.

Always a Blessing in the End

The Chronicles of the Four Ancestral Lineages of Ben Ivy & Ruth Thompson

Paulette Ivy Harris

Saturday, September 24,
1:30 p.m.—3 p.m., Meeting Room A

While the United States Government ignored protests to end slavery or to deal effectively with emancipation's aftermath of racial inequality and bigotry, Avon author Paulette Ivy Harris' African American ancestors were enduring a society that tried to discourage them.

However, by researching her family history, she discovers the depth of her ancestors' faithfulness and perseverance and reveals the ways their lives were blessed.

Anyone who is seeking to write their own family history will also be encouraged by the author's research methods and narrations. Refreshments, book sales, and autographing will follow Harris's presentation. Please register for this free program.

In memory...

Ruth Amick (1925—2005)

Ruth Amick was a life-long resident of the Avon area and a long-time member of the Avon Friends of the Library Board of Directors. She worked with a smile, quietly behind the scenes sorting books for sales, and worked at the book sales during the day when others were not available.

At age 80, Ruth continued to work several hours a week at Meijer, while also volunteering at the Avon Public Library, Meals on Wheels, and at the Calvary United Methodist Church. Avon Friends of the Library Board Member June Thompson notes, "We shall all miss her smile and her dependable work."

Parents!
Parenting Children Ages 1 to 4

This program is designed for parents of children ages 1-4 and will help them improve their parenting skills. Offered on Wednesday, September 14 from 6 to 7:30 p.m., this class will help parents learn discipline methods that work, how to prevent problems such as tantrums, ways to build a loving bond with your child and how to care for your child at different ages and stages. This Mental Health Association class costs $13 (cash only, please) which includes a parent workbook. Pre-registration is required. Call 272-0027 to attend.

GED Classes at the Library

Wayne Township Adult Basic Education (ABE) will be offering ABE/GED classes again this year at the Avon library on Monday and Wednesday in Meeting Room A from 9 a.m. to noon beginning Wednesday, September 7.

The classes will provide instruction in reading, math, language, life skills, GED preparation, GQE remediation, family literacy, employability and communication skills. Classes are provided free of charge to eligible students who are at least sixteen years of age.

Interested persons under 18 must be officially withdrawn from public school and must present exit papers at the time of registration. Anyone interested in attending classes, should call the Adult Basic Education Office at the Brownsburg Library at 852-3167, extension 34.

Twenty-first Century
SCHOLARS

Attention parents of 7th and 8th grade students!

The 21st Century Scholars Program grants tuition awards to low-income Indiana students pursuing higher education. Counselors will be here to meet with parents on Tuesday, September 20, from 5-7 p.m. Students must be in 7th or 8th grade and the median household income range should be from $23,100 to $46,600 based on the number of people in your house. Meet with counselors from this program to learn how you can help send your child to college! This is a free program, but registration is required.

"Libraries Matter"

Let everyone know that you believe in libraries and all the good they do!

Wear a blue "Libraries Matter" wristband and show that your library is important to you. You can purchase one for only $3.00 at the Children's Reference Desk.

Maybe you are already wearing one - that's great!! Why not get another for a friend?

Put Your Garden to Bed for the Winter

Summer Reading Racks Up Big Numbers

Summer reading participation at the Avon library was awesome!

The final tally shows that 1,422 children registered to participate in one of four reading groups. Children entering first grade and younger read or listened to a total of 21,674 books and children in grades 2 through 12 read 883,102 pages.

There were 64 programs offered to children during June and July and 1,744 children attended them. Reading prizes were awarded to children in grades four and under including prizes from summer reading sponsors such as Arby's, Chic-Fil-A, Texas Roadhouse, Bob Evan's and Dairy Queen. Kids in grades 5 and up received Library Bucks that they used at the annual Celebrity Auction to bid on and win items donated by celebrities and local businesses.

Adults were also active readers this summer. There were 168 adults registered for the adult reading program and they logged in with 315,367 pages read during the two-month summer reading program.

Summer reading raffle prize winners are listed on this page and the next along with some photos from some of the summer programs.
